

UN-ECE/Working Party on Land Administration: Analytic Conclusions re Countries in Transition: Spatial Information Management toward Legalizing Informal Urban Development

Dr. Chryssy POTSIU, Chair of FIG Commission 3, Greece

CURRICULUM VITAE

Chryssy A Potsiou, Dr. Surveying Engineer, Lecturer, Lab. of Photogrammetry, School of Rural and Surveying Engineering, National Technical University of Athens (NTUA), Greece, teaching Cadastre, Land Management, and Spatial Information Management. She also works as private surveying engineer as consultant mainly in cadastral, photogrammetric and urban planning studies. Since 1986, she worked at the Lab. of Photogrammetry of NTUA, teaching photogrammetry, cadastre and cartography and participating in research programs.

Dr. Potsiou has been since 2001 been elected member of the Bureau UN-ECE WPLA. In FIG she has served among other positions as Chair Elect of FIG Commission 3 – Spatial Information Management (2002-2006) and a Chair of Commission 3 (2006-2010) and as ACCO representative in the Council 2007-2008. She was also Secretary General of the Organizing Committee for the FIG WW2004 in Athens.

CONTACTS

Dr Chryssy A Potsiou
Chair of FIG Commission 3
Lecturer, School of Rural & Surveying Engineering
National Technical University of Athens
9 Iroon Polytechniou st, National Technical University Campus,
15780 Zografos
GREECE
Tel. + 30 210 7722688 or 7722651
Fax + 30 210 7722677
E-mail: chryssyp@survey.ntua.gr

---

SFS 1 – Land Administration and Property Rights – How to Achieve the Basic and Fundamental Structure? 1/1
Chryssy Potsiou

UN-ECE/Working Party on Land Administration: Analytic Conclusions re Countries in Transition: Spatial Information Management toward Legalizing Informal Urban Development

FIG Working Week 2008 and FIG/UN-HABITAT Seminar Improving Slum Conditions through Innovative Financing
Stockholm, Sweden 14-19 June 2008