

Sustainable and resilient priority human settlement development areas: A case of Musligwa local municipality, South Africa

James Chakwizira and Mac Mashiri (South Africa)

Key words: Access to land; Affordable housing; Implementation of plans; Informal settlements; Land management; Professional practice; Spatial planning; Urban renewal; priority development areas, sustainable human settlements, informal settlements, implementation plan

SUMMARY

The paper explores the development of a priority human settlements development area plan in Msukaligwa South Africa. The work was an attempt to address the informal settlements challenges from an integrated land administration, management and governance approach.

Sustainable and resilient priority human settlement development areas: A case of Musligwa local municipality, South Africa (12686)

James Chakwizira and Mac Mashiri (South Africa)

FIG Working Week 2024

Your World, Our World: Resilient Environment and Sustainable Resource Management for all
Accra, Ghana, 19–24 May 2024